

I think that this petition is the best thing that could ever happen to amateur radio. It would open up the hobby to more people with the technical knowledge that could pass the written test. It would also retain the Morse Code sub-band on the bands for those that like to use Morse code. Therefore it is good for everyone. Please pass this petition as soon as possible.